Description
The "user merge" feature is not completely documented in the admin section. The page https://doc.arvados.org/v2.0/admin/reassign-ownership.html doesn't describe --redirect-to-new-user.
Also, the "merge" API call is completely missing from the API documentation.

Document how to link user accounts by admin and add the method to the API docs.

#7 - 06/26/2020 09:05 PM - Lucas Di Pentima

Some comments & questions:

- File doc/admin/link-accounts.html.textile.liquid
 - Line 22: I think the word 'by' is missing on "...records owned the old account"
 - I think we are using zzzzz for cluster id examples on the documentation?

- To avoid confusions, would it be best to replace "old" and "new" with "from/origin" and "to/target" or something equivalent? That would make the clarification unnecessary at the link-accounts doc page. The downside is that the API params already use "old" & "new".
- With that, LGTM.

Fixed.

The goal is to document how to use the 'arv' command correctly, which uses the terms "old" and "new" from the API. I agree it is confusing, but I don't think using different terms would allow us to avoid the clarification about the use of "old" and "new" because the admin needs to understand it well enough to construct the command line correctly.

- With that, LGTM.

Will merge, thanks.
