A few comments, mostly nitpicks

- In show.html.erb: Regarding the pane divisions: The collection#show page seems a bit dull with two equal width big boxes on top. It seems to look prettier if I used 7 and 5 for the "details" and "sharing" panels respectively. Please update if you agree. If you like it the way it is, no big deal.

- Three tests in test/integration_performance/collections_perf_test.rb are failing for me. It may be because of my home network, but can you please double check. If they pass for you, all is good.
- In collections_controller.rb -> @is_persistent does not seem to be used anywhere anymore. Can you please remove this if no test failures? Thanks.

Updated! It makes more sense the way you said.

They didn't pass, I've fixed them now.

Removed and tested, all OK!
